

Maths Week (W/B 30.10.23)

31.10.23 Spooky Maths Day 	All Children can opt to school in Spooky fancy  come to dress. Activities have a Spooky theme. Competition – Estimate the treats in the jar/bucket
01.11.23 Maths Detective Day 	ALL Today is all about being a maths detective. From exploring maths around us in our school and playground to cracking codes. Grab a magnifying glass and get investigating! Deerstalker hat optional
02.11.23 Number Blocks/Numbots/TTRS Day  	ALL Children can opt to come to school in any Maths costume. Could also be a Numbot or their TTRS rock avatar. Y2-Y6 Competition: In school Boys v Girls TTRS battle Years 2-6. At least once every day children will log on to TTRS in school to take part in the battle. Teachers will need to liaise to book ipads/crome books/ICT room. The battle will commence at 8.45am on Tuesday 31.10.23 and end Friday 03.11.23 at 3:10pm Rec- Y1 (Optional for Nursery) Reception – Year 1 Numbots (Develop a growth mindset in maths)

	Unicorn and the Big Race A story about the importance of practising little and often. The biggest race in the scrapheap is taking place and UnicornBot wants to do the best she can...but with strong competition, she needs to find a way to practise... Discuss what maths they could practice little and often and how this will help them. Competition: Design their own Great Scrapheap Botathon Trophy
03.11.23 Maths Movement Day	All Children will have fun learning through participation in active maths games. Quick Physical Games for the Math Classroom - Math For Love 35 Active Math Games and Activities for Kids Who Love To Move (weareteachers.com) Active Maths Games to Get Kids Moving - Twinkl